

M&A DISPUTES IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

The global M&A market reached unprecedented levels in 2021. As deal volumes rise, transaction disputes are expected to also rise.

AlixPartners will examine the types of M&A disputes (in the context of international arbitration) to expect and how to address them when they arise.

Our interactive presentation will focus on common M&A disputes in the context of international arbitration.

We will cover the current M&A market and disputes that have recently arisen.

We will present actual matters where AlixPartners has assisted, including the factual and legal background, the necessary expert evidence and analysis, and the outcome. Cases involve post-acquisition tort damages, warranty damages, and financial fraud investigation.

AGENDA

- Overview of the current M&A market and trends
- Each case study will be followed by a Q&A session
  - Exploring the Counterfactual: A Post-Acquisition Tort
  - M&A Warranty Damages: Warranty vs. Reality
  - Failure to Disclose: A Financial Fraud Investigation

CO-ORGANIZERS

SUPPORTING PARTNERS

DATE AND TIME

March 23, 2022 at 9:30am ET / 1:30pm London / 2:30pm CET / 9:30pm Hong Kong

PRESENTERS

The workshop will be moderated by Zach Li (Hong Kong) and led by a global team of experienced female professionals in AlixPartners' International Arbitration practice, including Sheng Bi (New York), Heather Bolner (Dallas), Anne-Marie Hitchin (London), and Jungmin Lee (Seoul).

FORMAT AND FEES

The session is one hour long and will be held virtually and is free to attend.

TO REGISTER, CLICK HERE