

Rising Arbitrator Initiative presents

Webinar Series: The Rising Arbitrator's Challenge: Navigating the Promise and Perils of Your First Appointments

Thursday, 22 April 2021 | 3:30 pm EAT | 1:30 pm CET | 7:30 am EST | 12:30 pm UTC

This webinar series will tackle the thorny issues that practitioners receiving their first arbitrator appointments will undoubtedly face – wherever they may be based. In a series of regionally focused events, the series explores arbitrator rights and duties that rising arbitrators must be aware of – across jurisdictions – with a view to overcoming these challenges with success.

The fifth webinar of the series covering the Africa region will explore the skills and strategies for success of a young arbitrator in a competitive world. The panel of Speakers will discuss topics encompassing, handling Institutional vs. Ad Hoc arbitrations, Dealing with inexperienced counsel and non-participating Respondents, and the Challenges of organizing remote proceedings.

Join Victoria Kigen (Case Counsel | Nairobi Centre for International Arbitration) for our upcoming virtual discussion, hosting the following expert panel and topics:

Opening Remarks.

Joanne Lau – Partner, Allen & Overy LLP

Handling Institutional vs. Ad Hoc Arbitrations.

Abayomi Okubote – Executive Director, Africa Arbitration Academy

Dealing with inexperienced counsel and non-participating Respondents.

Kananu Mutea – Partner, Head of Dispute Resolution, Gikera & Vadgama

The Challenges of organizing remote proceedings.

Isaiah Bozimo – Partner, Broderick Bozimo & Company

Date and Time

Thursday, 22 April 2021 | 3:30-4:30pm EAT | 1:30-2:30 pm CET | 7:30-8:30 am EST | 12:30-1:30 pm UTC. Log-in details will be provided upon registration.

Registration*

When you register you will be re-directed to the Nairobi Centre for International Arbitration, who are managing the registrations for this event.*

Questions

Do you have specific questions you would like addressed? Please email victoria.kigen@ncia.or.ke, and we will address them during the webinar or follow up separately.

Hosted By

